Financial Status Of Jitneys Highlights PUC Testimony

Inquiry into the financial status of Northgate Transit Co. highlighted Thursday morning's opening session of the state public utilities commission's hearing on the jitneys application to operate in Broadmoor and Colma areas.

Thomas Daly was commission examiner.

Balance sheet verified by George Ferris, the corporation's business manager, showed that since July 8, 1955, the company had made $73.92 in excess of expenditures.

The figures showed cost of operation during that period from July 8 to October 1 to be $3350.42, while total income was $3574.72, or a gross income of $224.30. After incidental expenses, which came to $150.38, the company showed a net of $73.92.

Reveal Fares

Ferris also revealed that for the month of July the company had 3705 fares, 9252 in August, and 11,380 in September.

The first week of October 2911 fares brought in total revenue of $417.15, while the second week gross revenue was $421.40, gained from carrying 2907 fares.

Ferris said, as far as he knew, the $421.40 was the most the company had grossed in any single week.

John Putkey, attorney for the Northgate Co., revealed that the firm has applied for corporate papers, proposing to limit shares, 18 in all, to the company's drivers and to two promotional representatives, J. Walsh and Paul O'Leary, and to their accountant. Each share, Putkey said, would be $100 par value.

Cost-Per-Mile

Charles Overhouse, transportation engineer for the utilities commission, questioned Ferris at length on cost-per-mile operation, asking breakdown of cost for insurance, repairs, gas and incidentals.

According to Ferris, cost per mile of operation was five cents.

Ferris said gross revenue per mile was 12 cents and termed this "reasonable." He said if the company could earn 15 cents per mile the profits would be "good."

In answer to Overhouse's query, Ferris said even if the company did not receive certificate of necessity from the commission to operate in the unincorporated area, they would still be able to continue in business at the present rate of loss.

"We've done it for 15 weeks now," Ferris said.

HILLSIDE RESIDENTS PROTEST GAS STATION

Over protest of 335 residents and objection of Jefferson Elementary School board, county planning commission Wednesday approved exchange of property on Hillside boulevard which will result in construction of a gas station.

The 8000 square feet of property, located at southwest corner of Hillside and Market street, is owned by Rose Gioldi, who has been negotiating with Union Oil Co. for sale of the land. However, the county owns easement over a portion of the land.

Under transaction approved by the planners, the county will relinquish its easement on the property for easement on frontage land a short distance from the gas station site.

Don Lesher, president of Hillside Improvement association, presented a petition on behalf of 335 residents protesting the gas station, because it would "threaten safety of children attending nearby Colma school."

At their special meeting Monday, the school board opposed the station on the same grounds, with Chairman Michael Callan abstaining. Callan said he owns property across the street from the Gioldi land which is zoned for a gas station.

Planners action Wednesday in approving the exchange does not constitute approval of the gas station development. However, since the land is zoned commercial, the station will probably win OK, unless blocked by county board of supervisors.

Daly City planning commission passed on the property exchange, but the issue never reached the city council.

Jefferson Student Performance Was Low; Has Improved

Performance of children in the Jefferson Elementary school district was below the national average but has improved considerably.

This was the statement made Friday at the League for Better Schools meeting by H. Z. Weibel, district school superintendent.

Speaking on "General Welfare of Jefferson Elementary School District," Weibel said according to the last survey performance of children in the district was below the national average. He said, however, that, "Since the survey, the district has improved in relation to the national average."

Helen Cheatham, member of the elementary board of trustees from 1949 to 1955, was presented with a scroll commending her for her activities as a school trustee. Thomas Jenkins made the presentation on behalf of the league.

Sixteen organizations sent delegates to the meeting. The bylaws were amended so that persons not attached to either civic or religious organizations would still be eligible for membership.

Nominations were opened for of-

DOG LEASH LAW IS PASSED BY CITY

Daly City's animal leash ordinance was passed unanimously by the city council Monday night.

Although controversy had been expected from some pet owners, there were no protests, written or oral. The law provides that all animals shall be on leash when on public walkways or streets. It also gives the poundmaster police powers to enforce the ordinance.

The ordinance will go into effect in 30 days.

Heim Dismissed, Is Still Eligible For Retirement

Dismissal of one police officer and suspension for two others charged with drinking liquor while on duty was the penalty meted out by Daly City council at a special meeting this Thursday.

Edmund Heim, 59-year-old veteran of 26 years on the force was dismissed for an incident that occurred October 7 and was disclosed by THE RECORD.

According to investigators, Heim had been seen in and had had four drinks in taverns before issuing a speeding citation to one of the witnesses at 11:30 a.m. This witness, and another, testified that Heim appeared to have had quite a few drinks at the time he attempted to issue the citation.

Suspensions

Officers John Coleman, 31, of 121 Hillside boulevard, a member of the force for five years, and Richard Brohman, 27, 96 Bel Mar avenue, who has served on the department one and a half years, each received suspensions. The two men were involved in a smash-up of their patrol car on October 7, shortly before the Heim incident.

Investigation revealed each had been drinking prior to the wreck.

Coleman, driver of the smashed police vehicle, received a seven-day suspension and will be asked to pay cost of repairs to the police car, estimated at $600.

Brohman received a 30-day suspension.

Admit Drinks

Coleman admitted to THE RECORD that he had had a "couple of drinks," while Brohman could not be reached for comment. According to City Manager Howard Stites, Brohman would admit having only one drink.

The two men allegedly consumed the alcoholic beverage while in a local restaurant, pouring the liquor into coffee for a "coffee royal."

Stites said three bottles of liquor were in the vehicle at the time of the wreck, one of which was opened. However, the bottles were removed shortly after the crack-up. Stites said a full investigation is underway to determine who removed the liquor from the car.

To Get Pension

Heim, the dismissed officer, will still be eligible for pension, and will receive about less than half of his present salary of $415 a month.

Thursday's action by the council was adopted unanimously, upon recommendation of Chief Roland Petrocchi, Stites, and unanimous concurrence of the civil service board of review, which met in a special three-hour session Wednesday night to review the evidence against the three men.

Heim returned from Mills Memorial hospital Wednesday, after suffering head injuries in a fall at Bay Meadows Race track on October 13. According to Stites,

Ralph C. MacArthur Died On Wednesday

Ralph Crane MacArthur, active Daly City businessman before taking office as county tax collector in 1943, died Wednesday night. He was 68 years old and a resident of Woodside.

Although a native of Caldwell, New Jersey, MacArthur moved to the peninsula in his early years. He was manager of the old Liberty bank here and continued his managerial duties after the Liberty became the present Bank of America on the top of the hill. After leaving the bank, he opened the R. C. MacArthur real estate office on Mission street.

In 1942 he was elected to the post of county tax collector which position he held until his death.

Survivors include his wife, Bertha (Bert) MacArthur.

He was a charter member of F.O.E. of Daly City, past president of California Tax Collector's association, member of Burlingame Lodge No. 400, F.&A.M.; Islam Temple of Shrine, S.F.; B. P.O.E., No. 1112, San Mateo; Redwood City Kiwanis Club, and a charter member of S. F. Post 82, American Legion.

Friends are invited to attend funeral services Friday, October 21, at 2 p.m. at the White Oaks chapel, 1696 El Camino Real, San Carlos. American Legion services were held this Thursday night. Interment will be at Golden Gate National cemetery, San Bruno.

DC Baker Kills Self Because Of Illness

A 47-year-old Daly City baker, apparently despondent because of ill health, committed suicide by funneling carbon monoxide into his car Tuesday afternoon.

The body of Mervin Yndestad, 47, 262 Los Olivos avenue, was found by his daughter, Arvis, 13.

Police were called to the Yndestad house at 4:30 p.m. by a neighbor. Upon officers' arrival they found that Arvis and a friend, Ron Fernandez of 438 Evergreen street, were attempting to push the car into the street from the basement garage.

Arvis told officers that she noticed fumes in the entry hall of the house upon her return from

REVISED DRAIN PLAN PROPOSED; COST WHITTLED

An alternative drainage plan for southeastern Daly City which would eliminate necessity of a vast storm drain assesment district was proposed Monday by Councilman Micheal De Bernardi.

De Bernardi suggested that a 48-inch pipe line be constructed along Market street, which would handle heavy runoff from the Crocker hills and take the place of the dangerous ditch adjacent to Colma school.

"I see no reason why the pipe couldn't be put in and the cost levied against the undeveloped property. It would cut down the overall picture of the assessment district," the councilman said.

The original assessment district proposed included all homes east of Hillside boulevard and south of East Vista avenue.

The original drainage plan, encompassing most of southeastern Daly City, would have cost $100,000. Each homeowner would have been assessed about $55.

De Bernardi said his proposal would take care of the immediate drainage problem for a fraction of this cost.

The council ordered City Manager Howard Stites and Engineer Cyril Weiler to investigate De Bernardi's plan.

$97,471 Contract For Super Mart Awarded

Contract for construction of a super market at Brunswick and Hillside boulevard was awarded this week to local contractor Lyal Ingersoll, whose proposal of $97,471 was low of five submitted.

Cost of signs, doors and fixtures will bring total cost of the project to well over $100,000. H. H. Smith & Co. is financing the project. The building will be leased to George Glass, proprietor of the Hilltop Market, 6315 Mission street.

Construction is scheduled to start Monday, and completion is tentatively set for March 15, 1956. Groundbreaking ceremonies will be held next Monday.

Bad Sewer Probe Will Be Pressed

Sanford Vickers, councilman and director of North San Mateo County Sanitation district, promised Monday night that investigation would continue to determine who was responsible for allowing installation of sub-standard sewers on Valley street.

E. J. Fanti, 161 Valley, told the council last week that homes in his area were doubled up on sewer lines, a violation of the building code. He asked who was responsible.

Vickers said Monday that the Sanitation district would assume costs to correct the condition. "In the meantime," he said, "We'll investigate to find out why this happened."

Mayor Joseph Verducci added that, "I think the council should investigate too so this won't happen again. We want to know where the responsibility lies."

Vickers said he would give a full reports to the council.

Phony Army Capt. Referred To Federal Men After Arrest

A 34-year-old San Franciscan, garbed in a fake army captain's uniform embellished with numerous insignia and awards, was turned over to the Federal Bureau of Investigation Saturday by local police. Richard Bertram Paulin, 34, 608 O'Farrell street, San Francisco, was held on a drunk charge by local police until he was transferred to FBI jurisdiction.

The "army captain" first came under notice when he flagged Sergeant Dean Wood and Officer Phillip LaBruzzo who were patrolling Mission street.

Paulin displayed a Bureau of Civil and Criminal identification card to the officers and announced that "80 per cent of the women" in a local bar are "B girls," the officers said.

Evidence

Upon being asked to produce some evidence, Paulin answered that he would show the officers the bar.

The trio entered the bar, whereupon the owner approached and told the officers that the "captain" had just been thrown out of the tavern for disorderly conduct. At this point, Paulin began shouting that the bar was a "gambling joint," officers declared.

Paulin was taken to the police station and placed under arrest. While he was being booked, officers said that he asked for the men's room and upon being told,

MANAGER URGES CIVIL DEFENSE COUNCIL SET-UP

Commenting that Daly City is "unprepared for attack or major disaster," City Manager Howard Stites recommended Monday night that a civil defense council be appointed here.

The council wholeheartedly accepted Stites' recommendation, and directed City Attorney Frank Blum to prepare an ordinance setting up a civil defense structure.

Stites, reporting on the governor's conference in Sacramento last week, said, "In event of major attack, there's no way to save the people in the heavy population centers unless we have adequate warning systems and

DC COPS CALLED TO TOP OF HILL TWICE IN 1 DAY

Local police were called twice Sunday to quell alleged fights in front of a tavern at the intersection of Mission street and Hillcrest drive.

First incident, at 12:56 p.m., resulted in two arrests. Charged with disturbing the peace were Wayne Dillaboy, 19, 138 West Market street, a brewery worker, and Thomas G. Bailey, 28, 182 Broad street, San Francisco.

Police received three phone calls informing them of the fight.

Second incident occurred at 9:45 p.m. that same day when police received another call of an alleged fight at the same scene. No arrests were made as there was "no fight in progress" at the officer's arrival, the report said.

Escorted by police to Junipero Serra hospital from the scene, however, was Patrick E. Finnegan, 215 Wellington avenue. Finnegan was treated for cuts on the forehead and cheek and escorted home by police.

Rental Fees Policy Held By DC Council

Our Lady of Perpetual Help church Men's club and the city council reached a truce Monday night on rental fees for use of the community center.

The Men's club, which seeks to conduct amateur boxing shows at the building, protested the recreation commission's new rental fee for profit-making programs, which called for a blanket charge of $90, $55 for setting up the boxing ring and five per cent of all money grossed over $500.

Meeting with the council and recreation commission, Walter Gillies and James Goulden, president of the Men's Club, explained that under the commission's fee schedule, the club would be lucky to break even on the boxing show, proceeds of which go to promote youth sports activities.

Council Holds Out

After more than an hour of discussion, the council still held out for the same fee, but said the

City Asks County Add $14,000 To Hillside Project

Resolution asking San Mateo county to contribute half to the $28,867 Hillside boulevard resurfacing and storm drainage project was passed by city council Monday night.

City Manager Howard Stites recommended the request, stating that "There's a good chance of getting some money from the county."

The paving would include all of Hillside from Mission street to Gambetta, while storm drains would be installed at several intersections.

Stites said that if the county refused to participate financially, Daly City could still go ahead with the paving project, estimated at $14,000.

DOELGER TO PRESENT SCHOOL SITE OFFERS

Definite proposals for a school site in the Skyline area are expected to be presented by Henry Doelger corporation representatives at the next regular meeting of the Jefferson Elementary School district board on Wednesday night. Price negotiations for the Skyline site, however, will await Doelger's return from Europe in about two weeks.

Last week the board addressed a letter to the Doelger corporation in which they asked that Doelger reply to their request to obtain a "seven or eight acre school site at the intersection of San Pedro road, Edgemar road and Skline boulevard." The board threatened condemnation proceedings if no "satisfactory" answer was received within five days of mailing of the letter.

"Satisfactory"

Appearance of two Doelger engineers, Ted Tronoff and Carl Timmons, at a special meeting of the board Monday night apparently constituted a "satisfactory" reply.

The engineers told trustees that the intersection site had already been claimed by the state for highway improvements. In lieu of the requested site, the Doelger representatives offered a ten-acre piece of land 1300 feet south of Westmoor avenue.

More definite details plus alternate sites will be presented to the board at next week's meeting.

New Clerk Job

New trustee policy of having the board clerk inspect each county and city planning commission agenda was triggered when Mrs. Katherine Mullen, clerk, asked the engineers why trustees had not been notified of new construction.

Elementary School Board To Consider Two Expenditures

Two possible expenditures by the Jefferson Elementary school district, expected to come under discussion at Wednesday's board meeting, are completion of school plants already in operation and purchase of portable buildings to ease the double session problem. A cost estimate on the completion of each unfinished school will be presented the board by Architect Mario Ciampi at the meeting.

Following the suggestion of Trustee Katherine Mullen, trustees tentatively agreed at Monday night's special meeting to establish a long-range priority list whereby each school will be completed in its turn.

Difference Arises

Decision to ask Ciampi to prepare a cost estimate arose after difference of opinion by the board on where to spend the money for improvements. Joe Lewkowitz advised that available funds be spent on Westlake school "because of protests" from that area, Mrs. Mullen believed that Colma school should come first because of the "inadequate recreation facilities," and Chairman Mike Callan expressed the idea that the money "be divided between Westlake and Colma schools."

Superintendent H. Z. Weibel's suggestion that the board consider the urgent need for supervisors in the district, rather than concentrate wholly on ground improvements, was ignored.

Schools Effected

Schools not yet completed are Woodrow Wilson, Garden Village, Colma, Westlake, Crocker and Jefferson.

Next consideration, that of obtaining portable structures to be used as additional classrooms, was raised by Weibel. Ciampi agreed with Weibel's suggestion and added that it might be wise for the district to buy six or eight portables, use them and then sell them to another district before it was necessary to make a declaration to the state.

State Aid

Difficulty in purchasing portables arises because the district is penalized for all square footage owned by the district and being used for classroom space. Under the state aid program, the district must show a definite need for classrooms before being granted appropriations.

Wednesday's board meeting will start at 8 p.m. at the administration building, 344 Santa Barbara avenue. Trustees ask that persons desiring to address the board contact the superintendent and ask to be placed on the agenda. Under new policy, persons failing to reserve time will be given an opportunity to speak between 11 and 11:30 p.m.

Westmoor Transit Line, appeared to protest the granting of application, while Frank Needles, City of San Francisco attorney, and Daly City attorney Frank Blum appeared as "interested parties."

City Manager Howard Stites testified of the need for transit here, and how the jitneys met this need when San Francisco abandoned service here. Stites said if the application was granted it would definitely "benefit Daly City and other communities."

Asked by Needles why Westlake area was not included on the original Daly City jitney route, Stites answered that the citizens from that area serving on the transportation committee had asked for it.

Thursday's hearing recessed at noon and was scheduled to reconvene at 2 p.m. If testimony is complete, the commission will take application under advisement and give their decision in from two to four weeks.

efficient evacuation."

The manager claimed Daly City's present warning system, the fire horn, was "not satisfactory because people hear the horn all the time.

"We must undertake a system to warn the people. The highways in Daly City will be handling hundreds of thousands of San Francisco people in event of attack or disaster. Maybe we can move the Daly City people out first," the manager observed.

Stites said that except for purchase of a new warning system, there was sufficient money in the budget to develop a civil defense program here.

A special civil defense session will be held by the council on October 31.

quirements," answered Tronoff. He added that the same engineer had been employed by both the school district and Doelger at the time the area was being planned. "If he didn't see fit to inform the district, why should we?" Tronoff asked.

Engineer employed by both factions was Edwin Smith.

Trustee Henry Kraus made the suggestion: "The Doelger corporation has an opportunity to create goodwill be going beyond their legal obligations."

Timmons, however, advised that the board establish a closer relationship with the planning commission.

Shortly thereafter, Mrs. Mullen offered to review each planning commission agenda for the board.

Trustee Hartley Appleton, commenting on an estimate by the THE RECORD in last week's paper that the site would cost approximately $60,000, announced during the meeting that the board had not set a figure.

club could save $55 by putting up the ring itself. The council's recommendation that the boxing show be conducted on Saturdays, rather than Thursdays, was also accepted by the Men's club representatives.

Recreation commissioner Ed Cavagnaro explained that under the previous fee charged for Men's club boxing shows, $75, the "city was actually losing money."

James Mason, recreation director, gave the following breakdown of costs to the city for one night's use of the building: Custodial, $18; supplies, $6; supervisions, $24; utilities, $12; building depreciation, $30; for a total of $90.

"Not For Profit"

Mayor Joseph Verducci, commenting on the council's endorsement of the commission's new fees, said, "The building is not to make a profit for individual organizations. Any money should go back to the taxpayer, or not at all. No matter how wonderful your motives, the taxpayer should enter the picture and if there's any 'profit,' he should benefit."

Mrs. Gordon Carlson, commissioner, added that, "We can't go into the assessing of motives. We know in your case they're wonderful."

"I agree," said Verducci, "We're talking policy and our decision is not just for this group."

Where Draw Line?

The mayor said, "The problem is, where do we draw the line? If we allow one group to conduct profit-making athletic shows, the next thing you know we'll have to approve wrestling, marathon racing, walkathon or anything. They'll have the center tied up night after night, which means less time for the kids.

"I'd like to know what the commission thinks about granting use of the center at all for this type activity. That's the important thing to me," the mayor continued.

Gillies then suggested the Saturday night show, which Verducci said, "I might go for."

"My organization doesn't want to cost the city anything," said Goulden. "We're interested in a solution so we can conduct this program for the kids."

"Let's assume Saturday night then," Verducci said. "We'll start with this fee set up and see what happens."

Next Monday was declared "United Nations" day in a proclamation issued by Mayor Joseph Verducci Monday night.

In observing that October 24 marked the tenth anniversary of the adopting of the United Nations charter, the proclamation urged citizens to observe next Monday as UN day "by means of community programs that will demonstrate their faith in, and support of, the United Nations and that will create a better public understanding of its problems and of its aims and achievements."

Board Recommends

Wednesday's extraordinary session by the board of review was a reversal of policy displayed on the recent firing of Inspector David Johnstone. At that time, the board took no action at time of his dismissal and acted as a disinterested party at the hearing, requested by Johnstone. Wednesday, however, the civil service board scrutinized carefully all the evidence, and made a prior recommendation, that which was adopted by the council.

None of the officers affected by the disciplinary action have indicated they plan to appeal the decisions, although it was believed two of them have consulted attorneys.

Although a statement of charges from the city is not necessary unless requested by the officer, Stites said the men would receive notification of the charges against them, and, in the case of Brohman and Coleman, would be written a letter of warning regarding possible disciplinary action if such incidents should occur again.

Disclosure by THE RECORD on October 7 that two witnesses stated Heim to be "intoxicated" touched off the widespread investigation that resulted in Thursday's action.

DALY CITY IS UNPREPARED

This newspaper has consistently used its editorial and news columns to promote organization of and interest in a civil defense program here.

At Monday's meeting, the city council belatedly took what looked to be a decisive step in the formation of a civil defense program.

On recommendation of the city manager, who said point blank that Daly City was unprepared for enemy air attack or major disaster," the council directed that an ordinance be drawn up to form a civil defense and disaster council here.

Asked about the need for civil defense in Daly City, here's what Harry C. Koch, coordinator of the joint cities-county civil defense planning board had to say in a special statement for this community:

"In spite of our defenses which include three radar fences extending across the Arctic Ocean, Hawaii in the Pacific, to the Azores in the Atlantic . . . it becomes evident now that with all these developments, war as we know it from experience in the past is old fashioned. The next one will start in a surprise attack. The enemy will try to hit all of our big cities. He will very likely include San Francisco (which, for geographical purposes, means Daly City).

"Now here is where civil defense comes in. Obviously, should San Francisco be struck, the military will not be available to cope with your problems here in Daly City. It will be up to you, here, to know what to do and how to do it promptly to save as many lives as possible. Civil defense is also geared to perform its job in the event of any great disaster, but no earthquake, flood or hurricane could be as devastating as the hydrogen bomb attack by an enemy. Of course, organization for civil defense requires many volunteers for rescue, policing, fire-fighting, medical relief, etc. But I believe when a disaster occurs the most important thing is that each man, woman and child know in advance what to do to protect himself as completely and securely as possible.

"Suppose the first signal you hear (in event of an enemy air attack) is the alert signal. The first thing you ask yourself is, 'Where am I with respect to probable ground zero?' If the answer is downtown San Francisco, I am sure you will want to get out as far as you can.

"Of the things which need to be done, civil defense will perform only as thoroughly as it has been organized to do so. This means volunteers for rescue leaders in first aid, clearing highways, controlling traffic, fighting fires and many other things. Of course, in areas close to the target, such as Daly City, many volunteers might be unavailable after a bomb blast on account of radiation to go into immediate rescue work. You and all of us should think of the work we would be fitted and willing to do in case of a disaster and register with civil defense now for that service.

"These thoughts may bring dividends in savings of lives which otherwise might be lost. Civil defense is survival by simple knowledge of what might happen and of some of the basic things to do if it did. Knowing will reduce hysteria and panic. Be collected—be calm. We know you will be helpful."

EDITORIALS - FEATURES - COLUMNS

CROWDED QUARTERS at the 7375 Mission street health center, a branch office of the San Mateo county public health and welfare department, are shown here. It is hoped by city officials that Daly City can gain a site for a new health center in the near future as about $80,000 is being reserved by the county for the construction of new facilities. Shown here are Dr. J. Paul Sweeney and Mrs. Alpha Mitchell.

"CRYING NEED" FOR NEW HEALTH CENTER

More adequate health center facilities, termed by one health official as a "crying need," apparently are waiting Daly City's acquisition of a suitable site for the proposed project. County Manager Robert Stallings announced last week that the county is reserving approximately $80,000 from a state department of public health allocation for the construction of a new center in Daly City.

Three sites are now under consideration, according to City Manager Howard I. Stites, who is working with Councilman Del Wilson on the health center problem. Two of the pieces of land under consideration are privately owned properties and the third suggestion is a portion of Marchbanks park.

"Only Suggestion"

Stites emphasized that use of a portion of the park for a health center is only a suggestion and has not even been discussed before the Park and Recreation commission. He added that conversion of a part of Marchbanks park for a health center would only be considered if no other suitable site is available.

Councilman Wilson, who has repeatedly stated that he will hold out for the establishment of emergency hospital service, revealed today that there is a strong possibility that the city might contract with private physicians for such service.

Contract Doctors

According to Wilson, the city is now contacting local physicians to see if they are interested in establishing a medical building adjacent to the health clinic. Under the plan, the county can contract with the physicians to operate a health clinic and the city can contract with them to give emergency treatment. In this manner, all three factions will benefit, Wilson believes.

At the present time the health center is being maintained in crowded quarters at 7375 Mission street. Nine nurses, under direction of Supervisor Monica Finn, conduct the public health program from the Mission street offices.

Northern County

The health staff covers the northern part of the county as far south as Bayshore, Brisbane and Millbrae.

Services offered are public health nursing, bedside program, health department program, maternal and child welfare program, and tuberculosis program. The staff is also available for aid to parochial schools on a consultation basis.

Two For Tonight

By Leonore Brewer

OPERATIC HIT PARADE . . . So far top position is held by "Lohengrin" which had as close to a perfect performance as we ever hope to see. This puts "Andrea Chenier" in second place with "Macbeth" a close third. Capsule comments on the balance as follows:

"Aida"—We're firm believers in giving a strong war horse the job of pulling opening night through. "Aida" did it.

"Louise" — Dorothy Kirsten looked beautiful and the opera flapped its wings a couple of times in the third act and tried hard but never really got off the ground. This one got "E" for effort rather than "A" for accomplishment.

"Der Rosenkavalier" — Beautifully done. Elisabeth Schwarzkopf's interpretation of the Marschallin was one of the great performances of the year.

Time Will Tell

"Troilus and Cressida"—As you will have noted, we even made the national magazines on this one. It isn't every day that an American premiere, and of a contemporary opera at that, is given and that night was one of the big nights. It was our opinion that Dorothy Kirsten was a mite light in voice for the role of Cressida. A careful examination of all criticisms has failed to turn up an "authority" to back us up in this, so possibly we're wrong. Only time will tell, when "Troilus" is presented another year with a different soprano.

"Coq d'Or" — Interesting because it served as the vehicle to introduce Mattilda Dobbs to local audiences. Full of bright color, action and humor, it would make a marvelous opera for the kiddies' matinees. As performed the other night it's a little short just by itself, and followed as it was by "Pagliacci" the result was an overly long evening. A ballet for the curtain raiser would solve the problem.

"Pagliacci" — Thrilling characterization of the role of Tonio by Leonard Warren. When we hear Warren we think he's the greatest baritone alive today. Then we hear Robert Weede as Baron Scarpia or Macbeth, and we think he is. And so it goes.

"Don Giovanni" — An unbelievable cast winning ovation after ovation, particularly Elisabeth Schwarzkopf as Donna Elvira.

Nose For News

You're always reading about someone who has a nose for news. Well, someone should write about Spencer Barefoot's ear for music. Last year one of the great operatic thrills was Hans Hotter's "Flying Dutchman." Later Hotter appeared on Specer Barefoot's Celebrity Concerts. This year, Elisabeth Schwarzkopf has the critics drooling. So where will she make her next local appearance? You guessed it. She'll open Spencer Barefoot's Celebrity Concerts with a recital at the Curran Theatre Sunday, October 30, 2:30 p.m. No concert-goer should let this one get away.

Several months ago we told you about the Opera Ring's plans to produce Kurt Weill's "Threepenny Opera." We were particularly enthusiastic because, as regular readers know, we believe that if opera continues to present the same old chestnuts year after year, it's going to die on the vine. "Threepenny Opera" had it first performance about a month ago at the Opera Ring's new permanent quarters at 123 South Van Ness. Now Miss Irma Kay, producer, director and founder of the company, has announced that the run will be extended. Performances are Thursday, Friday, Saturday and Sunday evenings.

GOP Women To Give SM Dinner Meeting

Button's message will include plans of the Republican national convention, to be held in the Cow Palace in August, a report on the western regional conference of Republican county chairmen and vice chairmen in Portland on November 4, 5 and 6, as well as a prevue of the 1956 campaign plans.

OLPH Downs Bears In Touch Football

One of the top games in the Rec department's Touch Football league Saturday at Marchbanks found OLPH chopping down Broadmoor Bears, 12-0.

After a scoreless first quarter, OLPH's Bill Whalen faded back and nailed Don Cubic on a long pass. Cubic went all the way for the TD, in a play which covered 60 yards, and OLPH led, 6-0, at half-time.

Late in the second half, Whalen gained further glory as he picked off a Heick aerial and scooted 40 yards to wind up scoring and cinch the OLPH victory.

George Muller and Jim Heick did most of the Broadmoor running, while Heick, Dave Clark and Muller were instrumental in breaking up many OLPH pass plays.

Whalen and George Ambrosio combined several times to intercept Heick passes when the Bears appeared on the move.

This Saturday at 9:30 a.m. will find approximately 100 boys seeing action in the two divisions of th league.

Cub Pack 63 Football

Blues won over the Reds, 6-0, in a Cub Pack 63 intra-pack game held Saturday at Marchbanks park.

Outstanding plays were made by Buzz Romero, Jim Fife and Mike Shelver.

Red team competitors were Lee Klingler, Bill Carpenter, Jim Mason, Tod Hunter, Art Rassmussen, David Battglia, Larry Klien, Shelver, John Kerekes and Wally Joyce. Playing for the Blues were Dale Westrum, Fife, Dick Holmberg, Arnie Simonsen, Bill Shelver, David Romero, David Von Glahn, Buzz Romero, Carl Carpenter and Bill Rassmussen.

COLLEGE IS A PRIVILEGE, PTA TOLD BY EDUCATOR

'We have so many privileges which we take for granted. College is a privilege denied to many millions of young people each year and parents should start conditioning children at an early age by stressing college attendance as a privilege."

These words were directed to parents and friends of the Jefferson Union High School PTA last week, in the Little Theatre by Miss Ada Beveridge, director of college-community relations, San Mateo college.

Miss Beveridge said that through her experience she has encountered three attitudes which made college planning difficult: "First—This child should go to college because everyone in our family has gone to college; second—My child should have a college education because we didn't have one; third—We didn't go to college, therefore, there is no reason why my child should go to college."

As a college-community relations director, Miss Beveridge believes the main importance of college is to establish independent thinking and open up a whole new adventure in living.

Local Navy Office Has Airman Openings

The local Navy representative announced today openings for young men to apply for the Navy airman program. A quota has been established for this area which insures immediate enlistment in the air branch of the fleet. Men who apply for this program are guaranteed to be associated with Navy air before they sign the papers of enlistment, it was added.

Information on the Navy airman program may be obtained by contacting the Navy recruiting office located at 6705 Mission street, Daly City.

San Franciscans saw their first automobile during the Midwinter Fair of 1893 in Golden Gate Park.

COPS ARREST TWO LOCAL BOYS FOR STEALING 4 CARS

Two Daly City youths, aged 13 and 15, have been referred to juvenile authorities after they admitted to stealing at least four cars here.

Capture of the pair resulted when Sergeant Ricco Benedetti spotted the youngest boy driving a pickup truck in a "reckless manner" on Hillside boulevard Monday afternoon. Benedetti gave chase and finally caught the youth on Sylvain and Hillside in Colma.

The seargeant said that the boy made a right turn at Sylvain and Hillside and piled into a parked car.

Upon apprehension, the 13-year-old told Benedetti that he and a 15-year-old friend had stolen not only the pickup, but three other vehicles from local car dealers.

Both boys attend Jefferson Union High school.

$10,000 SEWAGE PROJECT PLANNED

North San Mateo County Sanitation district has instructed Engineer Edwin H. Smith to prepare plans for a $10,000 sewer line project under Lake Merced boulevard.

The job will include replacement of an 18-inch sewer line under Lake Merced boulevard which blocks up sewage flowing from 24-inch lines on both sides.

The district will seek approximately $5000 of the money for the project from the state "Christmas" fund.

San Bruno "Romeo" Fined $50 By Judge

An unemployed steel worker from San Bruno, who Wednesday night smashed his hand through a Colma motel window in an attempt to gain entry, pleaded guilty in municipal court the following morning to a disturbing the peace charge.

A $50 fine, levied by Judge Thomas L. Bocci, was paid by Clair Craig, 43, 100 Cypress, San Bruno.

Craig was arrested by Broadmoor Police Officer George Carleton who reported that Craig, with his hand wrapped in a towel for protection, had smashed his fist through the window. Police said that a woman acquaintance inside the motel unit had refused entry to Craig.

A "slight tussle" with Carleton before the arrest was made was reported.

WOMAN ROBBED OF $574 LOOT BY TWO PURSE SNATCHERS

A 41-year-old woman was robbed of $574.50 in money and jewelry Friday night by two "Latin-type" youths who grabbed her purse as she was returning home from work.

Victim of the theft was Mrs. Blanche Walker, 41, 42 Tallwood drive, who told police that she was walking on Hillside boulevard after alighting from a bus when she first saw the thugs.

The pair drove past in a yellow convertible and honked, Mrs. Walker said. A few minutes later one of the youths approached her from behind and snatched her purse. She told officers that she chased the boy but that he climbed into the convertible and raced away.

Youngster Hurt In Fall From Playground Slide

A five-year-old boy suffered two broken bones in his left wrist when he fell from the top of a slide at Edgeworth playground last Thursday afternoon.

Treated at Junipero Serra hospital was Kenneth Brown, 123 East Vista avenue. The boy was rushed to the hospital via police ambulance when officers were called to the scene by Playground Director Thelma Steele.

News From Here & There

By Eleanor Doyle

A real happy guy these days is LARRY GLOVER of Bismark, who recently parted with an arm cast after wearing it all the summer vacation.

Seems like wearing a cast is beginning to be quite the thing these days. The latest one to be sporting a cast is DONNA MAHOOD of Moltke stret. Broke her wrist when she was taking a skating lesson out at Playland. So she's warming the benches these days and hoping the five weeks go by fast.

Glad to hear that VI MURPHY is feeling lots better, recently spent three days in the hospital just relaxing. Learning how to relax is mighty hard for this gal, always available for a worthy cause.

Girl SCOUT TROOP 66 is busy planning a party for their first Halloween together. Each girl will bring a guest and many nice things have been planned to make the evening a big success.

Belated anniversary wishes to the couples in Sterling Park. The PAT BURKEY'S and the GORDON STONES, both residents of C street. The two couples enjoyed a swell evening together celebrating.

A repeat performance for the GEORGE ELLIS'S of Thiers when they welcomed their third daughter into their family October 7. Baby Joanne was greeted by her two big sisters Nancy and Susy.

BRUCE DAVIDSON of Abbot just celebrated his third birthday. Ten children and many relatives arrived to help him celebrate the big day.

Welcome back to the house wifes union to BARBARA BAUGHN of Lausanne, who is no longer a working gal.

Well, we'll soon be saying goodbye to the CLAY SHEETS of Bismark, who are selling their home to move to Carlmont, down the peninsula.

The FRIENDLY NEIGHBORS of Abbot are planning a meat ball and spaghetti dinner to celebrate Halloween this year. Will be given at the home of the Chet Olamnsons of Bismark with Owen MacNealy as head cook. Recent Hostess was Mrs. Gerry Vickers when yours truly was surprised with a wonderful birthday gift from the group.

Sorry to hear that once again MRS. MARY ALISON of Hillside is on the sick list. Her many friends at the Assembly of God church miss her and hope she'll soon be able to join them.

Seems like our flu bug is working over time these days. Little Earl and Susy Taylor have really been having an awful seige of it. While up this way we find LIZ KIRBY and LEE LESHER trying to shake that bug.

Some more folks who are going to be missed are the KENNETH LIEN'S of Frankfort street, who will be moving to Walnut Creek soon. Mrs. Lien recently resigned as the President of the Crocker Pershing School and will be missed by her many friends and associates. So our best wishes go with you both.

Columbus Day was a big day for JOHNNY CIERNICK of 136 E. Vista, too. Sixteen of his friends arrived all in Halloween costume to help him celebrate his sixth birthday. Halloween luncheon was enjoyed by all.

Enjoying an evening at the Fairmont hotel were the OWEN MAC-NEALYS, who even brought back an autograph of Billie Ekstine for their favorite baby sitter—Jerlyn Vickers. . . . Were seen over at Fisherman's Wharf the next AM enjoying breakfast with Owen's relatives from Sacramento.

Home on weekends visiting with her folks is STAR RUIZ of Wyandotte. Through the week Star is attending a private school in the city.

Its back to being a plain old civilian again for Robert Meir Jr. who is home after completing three years in the service. Spent most of his time in Munich, Germany.

Home on a 72 hour pass recently was WILLIAM BEECHER. He is recuperating in a San Diego hospital after a serious eye injury.

Another young miss who just celebrated a birthday is KATHY LESHER of Castle street. Fifteen of her young friends and their Moms arrived to help Kathy eat up all the goodies. All the guests had a wonderful time.

A surprise dinner party was given last Tuesday evening for MRS. DOROTHY LEIN who is soon to be moving from our city. Sharing hostess duties were Pat Sommers and R. Sawyer. The guests who attended the dinner were E. Zanich, R. Henrrig and A. Carpenter.

A late birthday wish goes to JACK DURHAM of Abbott, who recently celebrated his tenth birthday. After his guest helped him to eat the cake and ice cream they headed for the Fun House at the beach. By the end of the day Mom brought home a bunch of mighty tired kids.

With saying goodbye to the Sheets family on Bismark, across the street the folks welcome a new family. So hello to the Dunn's and their two children.

What an odd coincidence, there were three birthdays on Abbot and all on the same day, October 11. NEIL ANDRUS celebrated his eighth birthday with a party and then all his guests departed for the movies. . . . IRVIN WONG just added another year which brings the total to 16. . . . Now move over, fellows, yours truly celebrated hers too, but how many candles I blew out I'm not saying.

More news from Sterling Park, the latest little guy on the sick list is TOMMY STATEN of B street, lots of hustle bustle there as the Statens will be moving soon. . . . While down the street the neighbors welcomed the JACK TARRANT'S and their three youngsters. . . .All the talk from there this week has been their big dance, which I heard was a big success and such a wonderful turn out.

EVELYN DURHAM, a den mother, is quite proud of her little Cubs, now has a full house which brings the total up to eight. The following boys have joined Den 2 of Pack 245: Roger Olmanson, Dennis Navvara, Jay Kline, Earl Smith, David Mealy, Bobby Doyle, Ronnie and Frank Sears.

Girl Scout Troop 7 busy making big plans for a Halloween party with their Leader, Mrs. Dorothy Carr, and Julia Egert ironing out the rough spots. Have fun gals.

Another odd coincidence happened to the JOHN FITZGERALDS who reside at the Serbian Cemetery. They welcomed their second daughter on the same day that their first daughter was born, six years ago. One good thing about it, Mom, they can have one big party and you're all through for the year.

Such a big turnout for the Holy Angels church carnival. Under the big top there were many wonderful things to be seen. Many of the booths featured homemade products. Lots of work went into making this carnival a big success and I know that many mothers and dads worked hard to do their job, so I think they all deserve a vote of thanks.

Many happy returns to MISS GLORIA COMER who just celebrated her ninth birthday, after the refreshments her guests all departed for the movies.

Busy RAY LEMON of B street, when not working nights, is busy singing for weddings and requiems. I hear that he's quite a sharp looking blade when he's playing his guitar.

The Hillside PTA meeting which was held last Wednesday evening at the Colma school with the husbands of the executive board taking over their wives duties was very successful. To make it a real big success the faculty even stepped in to assume some of the duties. The cooperation that the men gave one another certainly made the evening an interesting one. Chairman for the occasion were Don Lesher and Chester Mattison. Such a big turnout to see the men do their stuff. So thank you fellows.

Another hunter who is mighty happy he took up hunting is STANLEY DAVIS of Citrus. On his very first hunting trip he came back with a deer. And I hear that its quite a big one.

I see YOLANNDO PICCARDO of Moltke busy working at the Farmers Market and enjoying every minute of it.

Glad to hear that MRS. RUTH MAYO, dean of girls at the Colma school is back after being on the sick list.

It's back to the fog instead of the smog for ART HUELSE of Abbot, who recently spent some time in Los Angeles on business and says the fog looks mighty good.

Many happy returns to SHARON DERHAM of Evergreen street who recently added another year.

See that the SLIM LAWERENCES of Abbot enjoyed their evening out to see the "Cinerama Holiday." Their guest was Judy Willouby who was quite thrilled about the whole thing.

Remember to call PL. 5-5419 with all your news.

Okay Unique Vista Mar School Plan

Preliminary plans, envisioning a revolutionary "first-of-its-kind" design for Vista Del Mar school, were approved at a special meeting of the Jefferson Elementary district board of trustees Monday night. Designer is Mario Ciampi, local architect.

The school, to be constructed on Southgate avenue between Brooklawn avenue and Bradley drive in Westlake, will include two circular buildings. Ciampi's plan provides for 12 classrooms, two kindergartens, administration unit, multi-purpose room and special activities room.

Main building will be circular in shape and built around a paved courtyard. Inside the courtyard will be a rectangular administration building which will be surrounded by a small garden.

According to Ciampi, the "island" administration building will allow the principal to have closer supervision of classrooms, which will be visible from the central "island."

Also Circular

Second structure is connected to the main building by a corridor and is planned for use as a multi-purpose room. It also is circular in shape but has a dome roof, unlike the main building.

Ciampi told trustees that this is the first school of its kind and is an innovation in school designing.

Two advantages of the circular structure were pointed out by the architect.

First, Ciampi stated that the opaque walls will cut down vandalism. He added that the playground is on a lower level than the school and, thus, also will limit vandalism.

Second advantage outlined by the architect is that the circular design cuts down on necessary corridor space and thus, provides enough extra square footage to gain another room. The additional room is designated as a special activities room on the plans.

In stressing the advantages of the circular design, Ciampi revealed that the Vista Del Mar school will be constructed on the same square footage as Westlake school and yet will provide one more room than Westlake.

1st Grade, Mrs. Mitchell

We enjoyed two films shown to the school by the fire department.

The class was glad to have Thomas Newton and Janis Flynn back. They were absent with colds. Debra Burnes will have her tonsils removed on Monday. The class will miss her.

Mrs. Hawkin's fourth grade has been collecting acorns in connection with the social studies unit on the California Indians.

Mrs. Farmer's third grade has been studying traffic safety rules. They are making posters about how policemen help us.

1st Grade, Mrs. Fox

This week we learned why we must never play with matches. During fire prevention week we saw two movies.

Marchia Landgren is sharing two guppies with us. We are glad Vesta Lee is back with us. She hurt her leg and could not come to school. Albert Peluffo had a birthday. He is now six years old. Skippy's father, Mr. Galindo, a policeman spoke to us about safety.

Mrs. Hover's class is planning to make a mural the length of their room. It will be about California Indians.

Bonita Perry in the second grade brought an abalone shell to school. Bobby Flynn brought a live clam to school. We want to find out what other animals live in the sea.

In Miss Dennerlein's third grade they are continuing the Indian unit. The bricks for the adobe pueblo are drying now. They hope to have it finished by the end of the week.

David Miner is leaving. He will live in Salt Lake City. We are sorry to see him go. We have selected our kickball team and Stanley Kinka is captain.

$1461 WORTH OF LOOT IS REPORTED STOLEN FROM DC RESIDENCE

Theft of $1461 in valuables from a local home while the housewife was out of town was reported this week to local police. Victim is Mrs. Katherine Fredenburg, 448 Chester avenue.

Mrs. Fredenburg told officers that she left for Los Angeles on September 21 and upon her return on October 11, she found the house completely ransacked. She added that her husband remained at home while she was away.

Police are attempting to trace two male suspects who allegedly visited Fredenburg during his wife's absence.

Fredenburg is the former owner of a Howard street tavern in San Francisco, officers said.

Golf Tips

Professional, Treasure Island Driving Range

I Can't Hit My Fairway Woods!

Next to sinking a 15-foot putt, hitting a long accurate fairway shot with my No. 2 or No. 3 wood is probably the most thrilling part of golf to me. Those of you who have had a chance to see the U. S. Open probably noticed that very few if any of the long hitting touring pros used a wood for their second shot except on extremely long holes. Yet they spend just as much time practicing this important shot just as any shot they are called upon to execute. I fully realize that we all can't practice four or five hours a day, but when we do get a chance to practice try to eliminate the following faults:

Fault

Too many golfers try to steer this shot. By that, I mean they worry too much about where the ball is going rather than concentrate on the important part, that is to meet the ball squarely. You have no doubt noticed that 90 per cent of the time you don't have a suitable lie, making it doubly important that you concentrate on the ball until you have struck it. First of all RELAX! Tension tends to restrict your swing, resulting in picking the clubhead up from the ball too quickly. Sweep the club back along the ground with your left arm being firm and a nice smooth shoulder turn. At the top of the backswing cock your wrists and pull down with your left arm. At the bottom of the swing snap your hands to increase the clubhead speed. The snap you put into your hands at the bottom of the swing is what they call hand action.

Correction

Concentrate on hitting the ball. Use a wood with enough loft to offset a bad lie, play the ball slightly toward the center of your stance, and pull down at the ball with your left hand. If you are properly lined up you will find the results of concentrating on just hitting the ball will pay off with surprisingly good golf shots.

Keep your legs flexed. Rigid legs tend to restrict the swing and cause you to either top the ball or hit it very much off line.

Remember

Distance with this shot is nowhere near as important as accuracy. Swing easily and freely. Forget about the green, watch the ball. Use your three or four wood. These clubs have all the loft needed. If you find yourself in the rough that is not more than an inch or two deep don't be afraid to use your four wood. This is a very powerful club and will buffet the grass rather than cut into it.

Next Week — There's that slice again.

Cite Salesman After 200 Foot Serra Skid

A San Francisco salesman was cited for reckless driving and speeding Wednesday night when his car skidded 200 feet and spun in the middle of Junipero Serra highway, according to Broadmoor police.

Alexander Colb, 29, of 240 Buckingham way, luckily escaped injury when he applied his brakes while travelling an estimated 60 miles an hour north on Junipero Serra boulevard near San Pedro road.

Broadmoor police, stationed at a nearby restaurant, witnessed the vehicle skid 200 feet, turn completely around and come to a stop without damaging any property.

Colb will appear in municipal court on the charges next Thursday morning.

SF Mechanic Arersted Here On Drunk Charge

A 22-year-old San Francisco mechanic was arrested on a drunk charge here early Sunday morning. Taken to the city jail was Ernest Edward Neckritz, 22, 40 Niantic street, San Francisco.

He was arersted on the 7000 block of Mission street, police said.

Chamber Prexv Asks Broadmoor Annexation

Jack Kendree, newly-elected president of Daly City Chamber of Commerce, re-affirmed the Chamber's policy Thursday on annexation of Broadmoor area to Daly City and called a special meeting to further this project.

Kendree, addressing the group on "Outline of Chamber Functions for the Coming Year," told members that they should continue working for annexation of Broadmoor to Daly City. His proposal won backing from the membership.

Kendree and a special committee will meet Tuesday at noon at Lake Merced club to discuss further means of informing the Broadmoor people of the benefits of annexation.

Switch Jeff High Line-Up To Bolster Poor Defense After 25-20 Mateo Loss

The listless tackling — mainly responsible for Jefferson High school's 25-20 loss to San Mateo last Friday has prompted Coach Joe McGrath to make several changes in his defensive line-up for today's 3 p.m. tussle with San Jose at the Daly City field.

After this week's workouts, which featured heavy emphasis on defensive play, McGrath announced the following changes in the defensive line-up: Delmar Scott at end, replacing George McNutt; Nick Sutter at left tackle in for Jim Farley; and Don Wiesner at right tackle, taking over the job held by Ron Moon.

Offensively, Jefferson was more than a match last Friday for the highly advertised San Mateo eleven, but every time it appeared the Indian line had a Bearcat back trapped for a loss, he'd spurt through for a long gainer or a touchdown. Fullback Gerry Meyer was the nemesis of the Jefferson forward wall, as he broke loose for touchdown runs of 71, 53, 28 and 27 yards. On several occasions, he appeared surrounded by Jefferson tacklers, but tore away to go for six-pointers.

Indians Take Lead

The Indians took over, 7-0, the first time they had control of the ball, marching 70 yds. in 14 plays. The Jeffs accomplished this with short ground jogs, aided by Jim Honeywell's 11-yard pass to Ted Amirkhan. Tex Prentice went over the final three yards for the score and Bob Grubb converted.

San Mateo got back in the second quarter when Meyer took a flat pass and broke loose to jog 71 yards for a TD.

Meyer went wild in the second half, jaunting 53 yards on the third play of the quarter to tally.

Jefferson then drove back, travelling 68 yards on eight plays. A 31-yard pass from Honeywell to Tom Cloutier cut the distance down, and Honeywell banged over right tackle for the final 13 yards, to tie the score, 13-13, as the conversion went wide.

Honeywell's fumble on his own 37 late in the period set up the next Meyer score, as he gallopped 27 yards around left end, giving the Bearcats a 19-13 advantage, as the PAT was missed.

The Indians' second fumble, by Jim Giblin on the Jeff 40, handed San Mateo what proved to be the winning touchdown. Three plays into the fourth quarter Meyer broke through the center of the line and raced 28 yards into the end zone, for a 25-13 margin.

Cloutier Steals

Later, as San Mateo had marched down to the Indian eight, Cloutier intercepted a flat pass and romped 93 yards up the sideline. Grubb converted, and the score read 25-20.

Jefferson attempted an on-side kick, but the Mateans grabbed the ball and used up the clock on running plays.

Besides defensive changes, McGrath has revealed a few new faces in the starting offensive club. Ed Leveroni, fast-improving sophomore, may be moved into the quarterback slot so that Honeywell can be deployed from the half-back position.

Ron O'Rourke would then go at the other half, Lee Casentini at full. Another possible backfield is Tex Prentice at full, O'Rourke and Honeywell at halves, Leveroni at QB.

Ron Cryer may move into a starting end post, replacing Amirkhan, while Friday's hero, Cloutier, is threatening Giblin at the other end.

Funkhouser Out

Hal Funkhouser, big Jeff back, will be lost to the club at least another two weeks, after suffering a cleat gash on his knee in the Serra game.

Figures released this week show Honeywell the top offensive man in the league, with a total of 240 yards gained.

Another interesting statistic was the fact that Jefferson, although holding a 1-1 PAL mark to date, is the top scoring team in the circuit with a total of 42 points in two games.

Today's foe, San Jose, has an identical 1-1 mark, and is mainly known for its ground attack, led by fullback Ed Costa, second-team All-PAL last year. The San Joseans have lost to last year's co-champion, Menlo-Atherton, 20-0, while whipping Sequoia by the same score.

Bowl Loop Tightens

Carlos Pizzeria copped two from Luce Meat while Westlake homes was banging out two wins over Vince & Fred as the race tightened Tuesday in Daly City-Colma Bowling league action at Brentwood.

Luce held on to first place with a 13-5 mark, while Vince & Fred's was still one game out in second, 12-6.

Westlake Homes, paced by Dick Keefer's 200 game, 544 series, and Stan White's 195 game, 528 trio, pulled into third with a 10-8 mark with their double win over V & F.

V & F's Tony Santos hit games of 201, 224 and series of 569, while Babe De Lucca hit 204 and series of 549.

San Pedro Lunch shared third with Westlake as they came back from a defeat in the opener to beat Starway twice. A season high game of 931 was registered by San Pedro in their double win.

Otto Schramm's 234 game, high for the night, and 524 series helped Pedro compile the top team game.

J. Havell's 202 game, 556 series aided Carlos in their double triumph over league-leading Luce.

Ralph's Cleaners extended their win streak to five out of six as they knocked off Thur Meat twice. Ed Bucher, 202-514, and Len Ghighiazza's 523 series helped Ralph's victories.

DC Cleaners took two from Paul's Flowers, as Paul's Lazzari and B. Rocchetti hit series of 505 and 506, respectively.

DeLucca currently leads the bowlers with a 175 season average, while Tony Santos' 240 game is best to date.

LIGHTWEIGHT CAGERS IN FIRST DOUBLE LOSS

For the first time this season, Jefferson High school's lightweight basketball teams were victims of a double defeat, as a pair of league-leading Capuchino clubs turned the trick Tuesday at the Millbrae gym.

The local 20s were larrupped, 58-43, as the Mustangs exploded for 21 points in the first quarter. Cap's Phil Uren totalled 16 points by himself in the first half, as the 'Tangs built up a 32-22 halftime margin.

Andy Ruelas topped Jeffs scoring with 13, followed by Ino Patron, Leroy Franzoia and Carl Mecchi, each with eight.

Al Dye, playmaker of the 20s club and All-PAL candidate, was lost to the squad under a new ruling which sets age limit for 20s players at 17 years, three months. Dye is 17 years, six months. Mecchi moved into his starting assignment.

The 20s gave Cap a run for it, as the papooses were nipped, 25-24. The Mustangs held a 13-9 half-time edge.

Steve Opperman, with eight, and Don Miller, six, led Indian scoring.

The little Indians could pot only seven field goals, the remaining 10 points coming off the free throw route.

The two Jefferson clubs, which led the league in early season, now have identical 4-2 records. They must both knock over undefeated Capuchino and count on some other school to do the same to get back in the championship race.

The hoopsters were scheduled to meet South San Francisco here yesterday, Burlingame here next Tuesday and San Mateo there next Thursday.

Next week's action starts the second go-around on the double round-robin.

Frosh Soph, Behind 13, Rally To Whip Palo Alto

Sonny Martinez's took Paul Tapia's short pass down the middle in the third quarter and rambled 72 yards to give Jefferson High frosh-soph a 21-20 victory over a highly-regarded Palo Alto team last Thursday.

With seconds to play in the game Palo Alto, which had struck for a 13-point lead in the first four minutes of the game, threatened to snatch victory from the Jeffs when one of their ends got behind the secondary, only to drop a perfect pass.

Coach Tony Giammona had nothing but praise for the spirit his yearling team showed in fighting an uphill battle, after the Vikings ran off the game's first play for a 56-yard score, then recovered an Indian fumble on the kick-off and tallied three plays later.

Mylin Recovers

End Jerry Mylin, up from the bench, started the Jeff comeback in the second quarter when the Palo Altans fumbled a punt, which he recovered on their 15. Tapia drove over from three yards out and Neil Dunsford scored the all important conversion on the ground, leaving the score at 13-7.

With 18 second left in the second quarter, the Daly City team took over on their own eight. Tapia flipped one to Martinez, who was tackled on the 40, spun out, and outran two of the Viking secondary all the way to the opposition two-yard line. With four seconds left, Dunsford punched over the TD, and Martinez scored the PAT, for a 14-13 Jeff advantage.

Palo Alto Marches

Opening the third quarter, Palo Alto took the kick on their own 40, marched all the way to score and take command, 20-14.

After bogging down on two plays from their own 15 in the third heat, Tapia then flipped a short pass over center to the fleet Martinez, top track performer, who lit out 72 yards for the tie-gainer. Reliable Dunsford ran over the extra point for the margin of victory.

Martinez interception run back to the three-yard line ended Palo Alto's hopes of pulling their chestnuts out.

On the statistics, Tapia had an unusually low number of passes, five out of which he completed four. The four aerials went for a whopping 175 yards. Martinez snared two of them, for 72 and 70 yards.

88 On Ground

The frosh ground attack went for 88 yards.

Mylin was the big surprise for Giammona. The rookie end, who had been relegated to the third string, was a "game-saver" as he broke up the Palo Alto end sweeps and recovered the all-important fumble.

The Jeff chief also had accolades for John Finley, guard. John White, freshman playing his first game, was lost for the season with a broken wrist.

Naturally, Martinez, Tapia and Dunsford were in Giammona's favor, for their explosive offensive maneuvers.

The local frosh, with two wins, one tie, weer scheduled to meet league-leading Capuchino yesterday and will take on Menlo Atherton here next Thursday.

Jefferson 10s Suffer First League Defeat

Jefferson High school 10s had their first defeat inflicted on them last Thursday, as they dropped a 29-27 overtime decision to Carlmont.

Carlmont tied the contest with 14 seconds remaining at 21 all, and the Scots went on to notch eight points in the extra time, against six for the papooses.

Ross Holmgren, with seven, and Steve Opperman and Gordy Tydingco with six apiece, led Indian scoring.

The Jefferson 20s disposed of Carlmont handily, 61-32, as four Daly City players scored in double figures.

Leading the Jeffs point attack was Leroy Franzoia's 14, followed by Andy Ruelas, 13, George Mecchi, 12, and A. Stagnaro, 10.

The Indians built up a 30-13 half-time margin and coasted from there.

Jeff Cross Country Team Smashes SSF

Jefferson's ability to travel in a close pack was a prime reason for their cross-country win against South San Francisco Monday, 24-76.

Times were low for the distance as SSF's Breed won the event in 9 minutes flat, while Jeff's Ken Cooper was on his heels for second in 9:03.

The Warriors' Moatz sneaked into third place with a 9:15 clocking, but aside from him and Breed the Indians monopolized the first 15 places.

It was the first league win for Jefferson, as they dropped the opener to Carlmont, 25-30.

Other Jefferson finishers included: Albert Davela, 9:17; George Grasso, 9:21; T. Taylor, 9:22; Jim Gustafson, 9:23; Andy Estigoy, 9:26; Dave Harris, 9:36; Rich Johnson, 9:40; Amil Toscanelli, 9:47; Gary Romriell, 10:; John Jackson, 10:01; Joe Gusto, 10:01; Eral Graves, 10:09.
